(d) If you did not appeal from the adverse action on any petition, application or motion, explain briefly why you did not:

Counsel never followed up on appeal case 28 was Delisted
But never brought forward, petitioners records were prepared but no action taken to date -

12. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held unlawfully. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting the same.

Caution: In order to proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust your available state court remedies as to each ground on which you request action by the federal court. If you fail to set forth all grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

For your information, the following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. Each statement preceded by a letter constitutes a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise any grounds which you may have other than those listed if you have exhausted your state court remedies with respect to them. However, you should raise in this petition all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you base your allegations that you are being held in custody unlawfully.

Do not check any of these listed grounds. If you select one or more of these grounds for relief, you must allege facts. The petition will be returned to you if you merely check (a) through (j) or any one of these grounds.

- (a) Conviction obtained by plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced or not made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
- (b) Conviction obtained by use of coerced confession.
- (c) Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure.
- (d) Conviction obtained by use of evidence obtained pursuant to an unlawful arrest.
- (e) Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
- (f) Conviction obtained by the unconstitutional failure of the prosecution to disclose to the defendant evidence favorable to the defendant.
- (g) Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
- (h) Conviction obtained by action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
- (i) Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
- (h) Denial of right of appeal.

A. Ground one: Conviction obtained as a joint venture tactic, against defendant

Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) The petitioner was charged as a joint matter between local and State Police with regard to a possible conspiracy violation. The petitioner if anything as supported acted as a go-between in the case at hand, wherefore his conviction respectfully of 10 and 5 years where excessive.

B. Ground two: Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure, and identification

Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) The application for the warrant was baseless and was not corroborated by any physical evidence or credible informants. Whereas the entire case became a fruit of a poisonous tree matter, as per United States vs. Aron, the matter became a one way investigation. The basis for the application to violate search domain was vague and only set forth ambiguous facts in the matter at hand.

AO 241 (Rev. 5/85)

C. Ground three: Conviction obtained without proper defense, therefore supporting the ineffective assistance claim Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) The petitioner has several motions filed during the case - these are still currently outstanding - the attorney just always stated to either sign papers as follows his way. Defendant needed an interpreter, but aside from that original counsel left mid-way - a plausible defense was never set forth as zealously argued. Counsel violated the Canons of Ethics numerous times.

D. Ground four: Conviction obtained in violation of proper identification procedure

Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) The officers seized a license not stipulated to be seized in warrant, tried to dupe the petitioner, by using illegally seized item to gain a positive identification while the petitioner was eating at a local restaurant. The officers ran through the place comparing faces to the illegally seized document. This prejudicing the defendant.

13. If any of the grounds listed in 12A, B, C, and D were not previously presented in any other court, state or federal, state briefly what grounds were not so presented, and give your reasons for not presenting them: None currently,

But Reserved

14. Do you have any petition or appeal now pending in any court, either state or federal, as to the judgment under attack?

Yes ☐

No ☒

15. Give the name and address, if known, of each attorney who represented you in the following stages of judgment attacked herein:

(a) At preliminary hearing

Ronald J. Lanta, Esquire

(b) At arraignment and plea

Lawrence J. McGuire, Attorney at Law

AO 241 (Rev. 5/85)

- (c) At trial Laurence J. McGuire
- (d) At sentencing Laurence J. McGuire
- (e) On appeal Laurence J. McGuire
- (f) In any post-conviction proceeding None
- (g) On appeal from any adverse ruling in a post-conviction proceeding Laurence J. McGuire on Rule 28 Petition

16. Were you sentenced on more than one count of an indictment, or on more than one indictment, in the same court and the same time?

Yes ☒ No ☐

17. Do you have any future sentence to serve after you complete the sentence imposed by the judgment under attack?

Yes ☐ No ☒

(a) If so, give name and location of court which imposed sentence to be served in the future: _____

None

(b) Give date and length of the above sentence: None

(c) Have you filed, or do you contemplate filing, any petition attacking the judgment which imposed the sentence to be served in the future?

Yes ☐ No ☒

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the Court grant petitioner relief to which he may be entitled in this proceeding.
